

Auxiliary Operations Resource is opening in Crawfordsville! We are seeking experienced warehouse and assembly associates, material handlers and box truck drivers.

Aux-Ops is a service company that provides a variety of operational support offerings to supplement companies who outsource certain aspects of their business to third parties or lack the infrastructure, staff, or experience in operational related tasks or sustained operational requirements. The Aux-Ops team becomes a part of our client's work force or supply chain through contracted services. We can work within a company's existing facility or when appropriate the services can be outsourced and performed in an Aux-Ops facility. By leveraging a network of experienced staff, we are able to ramp up or scale-down on demand as our client's workload demands.
